Table of Contents

Chapter	Description	Page
1	Introduction → Definitions → Dignity and Respect → Bullying and Harassment → Sexual Harassment → Rights of Natural Justice → Empowering those feeling bullied or harassed → Best Practice Responses	1
2	Typical Bullying Behaviour in Organisations → Bullies explore and exploit weakness → Guises of Bullying → Examples of bullying behaviour – types of abuse → Proactive Managerial Responsibilities → Corporate governance → Encouraging a 'speaking up' climate	11
3	Harassment & Sexual Harassment → Possible grounds of Discrimination → Harassment mediums and channels → Examples of Harassment behaviours → Example of Sexual Harassment behaviours	21
4	Victim Perspectives and Feelings → Understanding Victim perspectives → Intention and Impact → Understanding intensity of emotions → Conflict resolution styles → Questioning techniques for better understanding	28

Chapter	Description	Page
5	Standing up for Oneself → Providing a climate → 5 Assertive steps to 'standing up' → Assessing the situation → Planning an approach to the bully → Confronting the bully in a calm manner → Agreeing values to shape subsequent behaviours → Reviewing the on-going situation	36
6	Initial Responses: Best Practice for Managers → Listening with empathy → Useful forms of words to use → Keeping the process informal → Coaching the victim to address the issues with the alleged perpetrator → Exploring agreement on a way forward → Mediation	44
7	Mediation Processes → Agreement on a mediator → Terms of Reference → Skills of a good mediator → Sample Mediation process → Building trust → Searching for common ground → Agreeing Values and acceptable on-going behaviours → Review of on-going relationships	51
8	Formal Investigations → Appointment of Investigator → Structure of an Investigation → Sample Investigation procedure → Investigation tips for complainants → Investigation tips for respondents → Representation → Role of Investigation Manager	59

Chapter	Description	Page
9	Best Practice Procedures → The 7 Ps → Having the right Policies in place → Clear Procedures for grievance and dignity at work → Good Protocols in place to aid conflict resolution → Sound Organisation Practices → People should be at the core of processes → Places chosen to provide for privacy → Prevention tools for managers	71
10	Establishing a Culture of Dignity at Work → Role of Senior Management in making Dignity and Respect a priority → Focus on values → Sample set of Values/Behaviours → Putting the enabling conditions in place → Workshops → Celebrating Diversity	83
11	Conclusion → Empathy and care → Informal mode → Local level resolution where possible → Best practice at all stages	89