

Table of Contents

Chapter	Description	Page
	Introduction	1
1	Expectations of your Organisation <ul style="list-style-type: none"> → Preliminary Communication → Professional and Dignified Delivery of the Communication about Redundancy → A Fair Package → Financial Advice → Outplacement Support 	5
2	Coping with the Initial Shock <ul style="list-style-type: none"> → The Initial Trauma → The Grieving Process → Why Me? → How will the firm survive without my valuable input? → Communicating the New Reality to Family and Friends 	17
3	Taking Stock and Moving in Easy Steps <ul style="list-style-type: none"> → This is where I am, is it? → What I have to Offer – Matching this to what is needed → Possible learning from your redundancy → The Required Attitude and Mindset to move forward! → Where to from here? → Your Future Career Offering 	26

Chapter	Description	Page
4	Analysing your Actual Situation <ul style="list-style-type: none"> → Where have I come from? / Where do I start right now? → Examining your ROLES, ACHIEVEMENTS and RECOGNITION/REWARD → Other possible areas for attention → What do you want out of a future Job/Career? → Resisting an obvious Temptation! → Getting your mind-set right → Investing in your own development → Family support → Preparatory work is a full-time job! → Reciprocal Network of support → The ‘Positive’ Challenge 	35
5	Finding your new ROLE from your skills <ul style="list-style-type: none"> → The process in context → Identifying your transferable skills → Three ways of identifying your skills → The six Families of Skills → Skill levels → Producing your Top Skills List → How to find your potential ROLE (or job) from your skills 	47
6	Identifying your FIELD <ul style="list-style-type: none"> → What’s your expertise? What do you know? What interests you? → How you learn: The value of experience → Finding your expertise and where it can be used → The choices – to specialise or be a generalist → How to find your FIELD from your expertise → Combining your favourite subjects to generate options → Getting experience: Internships etc. Options not immediately apparent to you 	59

Chapter	Description	Page
7	Approaching Alternative Careers/ Organisations <ul style="list-style-type: none"> → Combining expertise and skills to identify ROLES and FIELDS → Identifying working conditions that are best for you → Approaching Alternative Careers/Organisations → First Stage: Matching and Research <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Career & Field - Exploring the four types of career change - Doing basic background research on organisations – using the internet and other sources → Second Stage: Indirect and direct approaches - not including interviews <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Identifying your supports - The five types of contacts - The three types of interviews - Making indirect contacts and maintaining a database - Targeting Industries and Individuals - Setting objectives for your meetings - Doing in-depth information interviewing on targeted jobs or organisations - Making direct approaches by email, letter or in-person - Strategies to avoid → The role of the CV in the pre-interview phase → Follow-up: Expressing your thanks, passing on relevant information, keeping in contact 	66
8	Approaching Organisations – Interviewing Skills (the THIRD stage) <ul style="list-style-type: none"> → Ways of looking at job interviews → Basic presentation skills for interview → What chance do I really have? → Do I know what makes me an effective performer at an interview? → Answering the ten basic interview questions → Leading Interviewers to your preferences (LIP) → The power of ‘practice makes perfect’ 	80

Chapter	Description	Page
9	Your Vision of Life in the Future <ul style="list-style-type: none">→ A Search for Better Life Balance→ Engaging the ‘NOW’ – the present moment→ Collaboration with other like minds→ Developing a Personal Path to Enhanced Life Balance→ Searching for a Contribution to Community→ Finding your inner Spirit→ Linking inner Spirit to Life Balance	93